Subject Carlton Theatre - theatrical performances for poor.

Made by C.D.I. Sih Tse Liang Forwarded by D.I. Crawford

The managements of the Carlton Theatre, 21 Park Road and the Hwang Ching Theatre, French Concession, have decided to stage performances for three days, at the end of Lunar Year, for the purpose of raising funds for the relief of indigent people. On one day a play will be staged at the Hwang Ching Theatre, French Concession, and for the remaining two days, which will be January 22, and 23, 1940, the plays will take place at the Carlton Theatre, 21 Park Road.

The programmes of these two days at the Carlton Theatre, are (1) A modern Drama "Thunderstorm" and (2) Peiping Drama.

Both of these items have been examined and found to contain nothing objectionable.

As the aim of this project is to raise funds for charitable purposes, the management of the Carlton Theatre was instructed to apply to the Council for the necessary permission. This instruction was complied with and a letter was sent to the Council by the Carlton Theatre on December 29, 1939, a copy and translation of which is attached to this report.

Mr. Chow Yih Hwa (周翼華), Manager of the Carlton Theatre, was interviewed on January 12, 1940, and warned against introducing anything of a political or otherwise objectionable nature into the programme. He promised to abide by the instruction of the Police.

Subject. Shanghai Customs Club - to stage theatrical performances for entertainment of members.

Made by D.S.I. Liao Chung-chien. Forwarded by D. I. Crawford.

With reference to the attached application from the Shanghai Customs Club, No.10, Dong Yih Li (Lane 497), Bubbling Well Road, for permission to stage theatrical performances in the auditorium of the club at 6.30 p.m. February 2, 1940, Loh Ping Yao (陸東堯), a representative of the organization, was called to Headquarters in the afternoon of February 1 and informed that the police would not allow any theatrical performances or meetings between January 25 and February 2, 1940 as a precaution against possible incidents in connection with January 28 Anniversary. He promised to make arrangements to postpone the function and withdrew.

On the morning of February 2, 1940, Loh Ping Yao called at Headquarters and reported that the club had decided to stage the shows in the evening of February 17, 1940. According to him, a total of 200 tickets have been issued free of charge to the members and the performances would consist solely of Peiping style dramas which contain nothing touching on politics.

With reference to the attached application No.A 40/313 submitted by Fong Tsiao Pah (方椒伯) of the Ningpo Fellow Countrymen's Association, 480 Yu Ya Ching Road, to the Revenue Office, S.M.C., for a licence to hold vaudeville shows in the association on February 25, 1940, enquiries ascertain that the applicant is applying for the licence on behalf of the Voo Ying Zoe, an association formed by some ten prominent merchants of Wusieh, with offices at House No.24, Lane 77, Hart Road.

On the morning of February 21, 1940, Yang Ching Yung (楊景荣), a representative of the Voo Ying Zoe Association, called at Headquarters and stated that the shows to be staged between 12.30 p.m. and 7 p.m., February 25 would consist of Peiping style dramas only and admission would be limited to persons in possession of tickets issued free of charge by the organization. However, being ignorant of the procedure of forwarding an application to the Authorities, the Voo Ying Zoe requested the Ningpo Fellow Countrymen's Association, where the shows are to be performed, to undertake the work on its behalf. The Ningpo Fellow Countrymen's Association applied to the Revenue Office for a licence which, however, is not necessary as no tickets are being offered for sale in connection with the proposed function.

Yang Ching Yung was warned that the Police
